MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME XV. MILWAUKEE, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 23, 1858. NUMBER 69.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 23.

TO ADVERTISERS.

☞ Business Notices appearing in the Local Columns will be charged 25 cents per line for the first and 15 cents for each subsequent insertion.

☞ Transient Advertisements must be paid for invariably in advance.

☞ The number of insertions must in all cases be specified on the copy when handed in, as no "till forbid" Advertisements will be taken.

☞ Yearly Advertisers will be held strictly to Advertisements pertaining to their business. All other Notices will be charged at the Regular Rates.

☞ Extra displayed Advertisements, and those with large cuts, will be charged by the square for each insertion.

☞ Ordinary Notices of Deaths and Marriages inserted for twenty-five cents. Obituary Notices will be charged by the square.

The News.

Our columns, this morning, are so crowded with news matter, communications, &c., that we have only space to direct the reader's attention to one or two leading points. We have good reason to believe that LECOMPTON will certainly be killed in the House. Over this result every FREEMAN will rejoice unfeignedly.

Lake Poipi and Lake Winnebago are open; steamers have commenced plying on the upper Mississippi and to-morrow we may expect the first boat from Chicago, bound for Sheboygan, Manitowoc and Two Rivers.

Our approaching Charter Election begins to excite great interest. There is good hope that the TAX-PAYERS will this time beat the TAX EATERS.

REFORMERS ATTEND!

The City and Ward Reform Committees invite all Electors of Milwaukee, who are opposed to Party nominations for Municipal Officers, are in favor of RETRENCHMENT and REFORM in Municipal affairs, and desirous of selecting HONEST and CAPABLE MEN to administer the City Government, to attend their respective Ward Meetings, this (Tuesday) afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 8 o'clock, and vote directly for candidates for the different City and Ward Offices. COME ONE! COME ALL!

LAKE WINNEBAGO OPEN.

We are indebted to M. D. HENRY, Esq., for the following private despatch received by him yesterday afternoon.

FOND DU LAC, March 22.

The steamer Peytona has just arrived from Oshkosh. The Lake is free from ice.

T. B BIGELOW.

We learn from Mr. HENRY that the steamers on Lake Winnebago will immediately commence their regular daily trips between Oshkosh and Fond du Lac, connecting at the latter point with the Rail Road to Milwaukee.

The Tax Eaters in the Field.

The Democratic, Lecompton, heavy tax and high salary City Convention met at the Court House, yesterday afternoon, and made their nominations for City Officers. Mr. LYNDE, who was thought to have "a sure thing" for Mayor, was thrown overboard, because he was friendly to the Charter Amendments, and Mr. A. R. R. BUTLER nominated in his stead. There can be no exception taken to Mr. BUTLER, except as the representative of the particular interest which controlled the Convention. Mr. GARDINER, the present Comptroller, and Mr. SCHWARTING, the present Treasurer, were nominated for re-election, with but few opposing votes. A new deal was indicated upon, in regard to the other two offices, and FREDERICK KESSLER, a good police man, nominated for Marshal, and DIGHTON CORSON, member of Assembly, for City Attorney. Resolutions were adopted adverse to the Charter Amendments and ignoring all other issues.

The ticket is a fair, but not a strong one. It has the taint of the present wasteful, corrupt and inefficient city administration hanging around it. The convention which put it in nomination was mainly composed of those who oppose Retrenchment and Reform, because their interests lie the other way. Of the 45 delegates, only four were "natives;" just enough to fill the offices. Our friend, C. H. LARKIN, U. S. Pension Agent, and perpetual chairman to the Fifth Ward democratic caucuses, presided with his usual dignity and awed the turbulent lobby into something like order by his imperial frown. All the Irish candidates, and all candidates supported by Irishmen, were ruthlessly slaughtered.—In consequence, the Third Ward was in a state of incandescent rebellion, when we went to press last night.

A MODERN MIRACLE.—President BUCHANAN has performed a miracle. By taking off a man's head he has loosed his tongue. He that was dumb before, now that he is decapitated, speaks and speaks boldly. The subject of this miraculous agency is J. W. GRAY, editor of the Cleveland Plaindealer and late P. M. at Cleveland.—The President has just removed him, and appointed in his stead, BEN. HARRINGTON. GRAY was removed, not for opposing Lecompton, but because he did not cordially sustain it. He was willing to acquiesce, but his conscience, or the state of public opinion in Ohio, would not suffer him to do more. So off goes his head. And immediately the decapitated head begins to talk! GRAY is out, boldly and decidedly, against the Lecompton Swindle, and declares that there is now "only one party in the North, and that is "the Anti-Lecompton party,—that Old Buck "will be wiped out, and will retain only a mis"erable fraction of spoil hunters, and the igno"rant who are led astray by the name of Democ"racy."

We sincerely hope that old Buck, encouraged by this remarkable success, will persevere in well-doing. Let us hear from all the U. S. Postmasters, Marshals, District Attorneys, &c.

Delinquent State Tax.

There is still a large amount of the State tax that is withheld from the State Treasury, from several of the counties. In view of this fact, the Governor sent to the Treasurer, a notice contained in the following circular of MR. Hastings, which shows a determination on his part, to have the laws of the State fully complied with. This promptness on the part of Gov. Randall, is highly commendable, and will receive the sanction of all honest men. We understand that copies of the following circular, have been sent to the Treasurer of each delinquent county:

OFFICE OF STATE TREASURER,
Madison, March 19th, 1858.

To the Treasurer of ———

SIR:—I beg to call your attention to the following communication just received from the Governor.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Madison, March 19.

HON S. D. HASTINGS, State Treasurer:

SIR:—I am informed that in a number of cases, County Treasurers have failed to pay over the State tax as required by law. You will please notify such delinquent Treasurers to pay over the moneys, belonging to the State in their hands, and if your notice is not immediately responded to, I will give instruction for their prosecution; both for the twenty per cent on the amount withheld, and for the forfeiture of their offices.

By the Gov.,
ALEX. W. RANDALL.

I trust the balance of State Tax in your hands will be immediately paid over.

Very respectfully,
SAM'L. D. HASTINGS, State Treasurer.

—Madison Jour.

DERANGED.—Judge Slidell, of Louisiana, a brother of the distinguished Senator Slidell, has become hopelessly deranged in consequence of a blow from a cane inflicted by a ruffian at an election in New Orleans.

THE LECOMPTON MEASURE IN WASHINGTON.—We have private advices from an intelligent source in Washington that the Lecompton measure cannot obtain a majority in the House of Representatives. These advices are supported by the intelligence through public channels.—Detroit Free Press, (dem) 21 inst.

All accounts seem to agree in this welcome, yet unexpected news. We hope that the future will verify it, and that the People's House will stand up, manfully, resolutely and successfully, for POPULAR RIGHTS and FREEDOM in KANSAS! It would be the most signal and gratifying victory of the age to beat the administration on this issue of their own forcing. But in the event of defeat will the President and his advisers resign and give back to THE PEOPLE the trust they have betrayed and the power they have abused?

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—Through the Concord (N. H.) Patriot we have returns from all the towns in the State except three small places in Coos county. The footings are as follows: HAILE 26,801; CATE 21,580; scattering 67. Majority against democracy 4,826. The same towns last year gave a majority against the democracy of 3,537.

Whole vote,	47,948
Increase over last year,	2,072
Increase of democratic vote,	361
Increase of opposition vote,	1,552
Increase of majority against democrats,	1,291
Haile's majority over all,	4,712
Haile's majority over Cate,	4,771

Nine republicans are elected in the Senate (a gain of one) and three democrats. The House will probably contain 194 republicans (a gain of four) to 121 democrats—a republican majority of 73. The Council is unanimously republican (a gain of one.)

FIRE.—The flour and barley mills of A. B. Raymond, at West Farms, Westchester county, N. Y., were burned a few days ago. Loss $40,000; insured for $20,000.

CURIOUS COINCIDENCE.—Buffalo Creek and the Hudson River, at Albany, both opened on the 17th instant. For a long series years these two events have always occurred nearly at the same time, and usually on the same day; and that day (if our recollection is not at fault) more frequently St. Patrick's Day, the 17th instant, than any other.

A Public City Library.

A rare opportunity, such as may never occur again, is now offered to our city, or to any public-spirited individual, or individuals, to lay well the foundation of a great public Library—such as would be a pride to our city and State, and a lasting honor to those who may be wise and liberal enough to step forward and secure the prize.

The library of DR. PERCIVAL, the lamented scholar and poet, who died in the service of our State, is about to be sold. If not soon disposed of in one body, the books will be sold separately and a most rare and valuable library broken up. It is now offered to our State government for $16,000, but we have reason to suppose that it could be bought at a much cheaper rate. A full catalogue of the library, numbering some 10,000 volumes, beside 4,000 unbound pamphlets, is now in the hands of our fellow-citizen, I. A. Lapham. It is a curiosity of itself, being in the proper hand-writing of Dr. Percival himself.

We call attention to the subject now, in the hope that some of our citizens will take the matter in hand and secure for Milwaukee this valuable collection of books, and make it the foundation of a library worthy of a city which is so rapidly gathering within its borders representatives of almost every people of the civilized world.

[illegible] Barbara. 'The dose I took this morning as intended for you. I put it into your cup of coffee, but in my hurry to get the thing done, I gave you the wrong cup and took the right one myself.'

'The devil fly away with you, you jade!' roared Mordecai as he flung himself out of the room.—In the entry he met the apothecary who had sold Mrs. F. the fatal powder. This medical man had heard of the commotion at F.'s house, and suspecting the cause of it, he came to administer ope and comfort to the afflicted.

'Don't be alarmed, Mr. 'Paine,' said 'he, the rug I sold to your wife was nothing but magesia. I judged that she wished to destroy herself, and tricked her in this way to save her life.'

'You swindling rascal,' shouted Paine, 'how dare you cheat a customer in that shameful manner, and obtain her money on false pretences?—Begone!'

And with this exclamation he violently ejected the astonished apothecary from his front door. The man of physic, suspecting, of course, that poor Mordecai was deranged, sent two officers to provide for his safe keeping. His relation of the preceding dialogue, however, soon obtained his discharge.

For the Daily Sentinel.

How the City Officials "let the money run."

MR. EDITOR:—Our present excellent Comptroller, has been for the past six months a frequent contributor to the columns of the daily press of this city. He has allowed no occasion to pass unimproved for informing the public of his official acts. Several lengthened communications have appeared at different times, reflecting upon the method in which the late incumbent had discharged his duties; others notifying the public of unsuccessful financial operations, &c. Now these come all very well, and are more or less interesting. It is represented, however, that all these communications of the Comptroller have been paid for as advertisements, at so much the square, in city orders, issued ad libitum, by that officer!! What an incentive to the cultivation of epistolary correspondence this must be? Who would not be a "complete letter writer" where the end was self glorification, and the dear people foot the bill? Haven't you "drawn it rather strong," Mr Comptroller, in view of your four thousand dollars salary? REFLECT!

REFORMER.

MILWAUKEE, March 22, 1858.

A CARD.—To the Press of the city—the personnel of the Tableaux and Old Folk's Concert, and to all their patrons—the Ladies of the South Pres. church and Society, present their acknowledgments for the polite and generous assistance rendered them in the reproduction of the Tableaux Soiree and Concert, at Albany Hall, on Friday evening last.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—Joseph Sullivan was fined $8 and costs for being disorderly.

Margaret Thompson for the same offence was also fined $8.

Wm. Brannigan and D. Grienwold, were brought up charged with being disorderly, but upon examination were discharged.

H. Smasher was also discharged.

Elizabeth Glenney and Elizabeth Downey were each fined $3 for mauling each other upon the street.

THE MISSISSIPPI OPENING!—The Upper Mississippi was open, as far up as the foot of Lake Pepin, on the 17th instant, and the first boat down passed Prairie du Chien on Thursday. We think that a very few days more will see the river open to St. Paul. Trade and travel will increase rapidly after this week. Indeed the first ripples of the advancing tide are already plainly visible.

Reported for the Daily Sentinel.

Democratic City Convention.

The regular Lecompton Democratic City Convention met yesterday afternoon at the Court House, and nominated candidates for the various city offices. The Convention was called to order by H. B. Webster, who nominated CHARLES H. LARKIN as chairman. The nomination was confirmed, and Joseph Lathrop appointed Secretary, and W. A. Noyes, Assistant Secretary. Mr. Larkin stated the object of the Convention briefly, and hoped that the same good feeling which has ever marked the Democratic Conventions in this city, might still prevail.

On motion of Mr. Webster, a committee of three was appointed to examine credentials of the delegates.

A resolution was offered remonstrating against the passage of the bill amending the City Charter, until the same shall have been submitted to the votes of the people, which was adopted.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for Mayor. The name of A. R. R. BUTLER was proposed to the Convention as nominee for Mayor, and on the first ballot Mr. BUTLER received 29 votes, W. P. LYNDE 9, and JAS. S. BROWN 9.—It was moved that A. R. R. BUTLER be declared unanimously nominated, which was carried

The Convention was then proceeding to ballot for City Treasurer, when some of the "outsiders" became very boisterous in the lobby, vociferating at a terrible rate, and offering all kinds of naughty resolutions, when the police were called upon to restore order, and did so.

Upon the first ballot for City Treasurer, HARMAN SCHWARTING received 29 votes, to 8 scattering, and was declared unanimously nominated.

For City Comptroller, on the first ballot, E. L. H. GARDINER received 43 votes, Dr. Heubachman 2, Sidney L. Rood 1, "nobody" 1. On motion, Mr. Gardiner was declared nominated. The Convention was here again disturbed by some rather personal insinuations from the lobby.

Upon balloting for City Attorney there was not so much unanimity as for other officers.—On the first vote, D. Corson received 21, Geo. Woodward 17, E. Foote 7, and Chas. E. Jenkins 8 votes. Upon hearing the result of this vote, Major FOOTE arose, and delivered himself of a speech, to the effect that he felt very grateful to those gentlemen who had complimented him with their votes, but he had supposed it was generally understood that he was not a candidate for re-election, and he therefore hoped that the delegates who had voted for him would cast their votes for one of the other candidates. Upon the second ballot Corson received 27 votes, Woodward 16, and Chas. E. Jenkins 2.—On motion, Mr. Corson was declared duly nominated.

On the first ballot for City Marshall, Frederick Kessler received 25 votes, Timothy O'Brien 17, scattering 5. On the second ballot, Kessler received 27 votes, O'Brien 17, and scattering 5.—Kessler was declared nominated.

A Democratic City Committee was then appointed, consisting of one from each Ward, when the Convention adjourned sine die. There was terrible swearing among both outsiders and insiders at the result.

EXCELSIOR.—The Daily News boasts that James S. Brown was defeated in his own Ward for a delegate to the City Convention, by nearly three to one.—Wisconsin, of yesterday.

The News exulted without cause. Mr. BROWN was not a candidate for Delegate, and his name was used without his knowledge or consent. In the City Convention, however, greatly to the disgust of the News, Mr. BROWN received just as many votes for Mayor as did Mr. LYNDE, whom the News has been strenuously advocating for a month past, and who was irreparably damaged by its support.

☞ The Sentinel still insists that the individual arrested by the police at the last meeting at Albany Hall, was a peaceable citizen, and his arrest was an abuse of power. We know that our statement was true, and we are sorry to see the Sentinel apologize for such rowdyism, or complain when the police take out of a meeting those who keep yelling continually, and cannot be pacified as was the case with the person referred to.—Free Democrat.

We are just as confident that our statement is true, as the Free Democrat can be, and should be the last to "apologize," either for rowdyism, or for an unwarranted assumption of authority by the Police. The officers themselves, who made the "arrest" in question, were the first to admit and apologize for the error, next day.

LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE R. R.—Much interest begins to be felt in the approaching election for Directors of the LaCrosse and Milwaukee R. R. The N. Y. Express of Thursday last says:

The transfer books of the LaCrosse & Milwaukee road close on the 20th, and remain closed until the 23d of April, for the annual election, which excites no little interest. The Albany managers who have stepped in with their money and reputation to save the concern, should be kept in power long enough to finish the road to the Mississippi. A change in the administration at the present time would make the stock valueless.

COMMON COUNCIL MEETING.—A special meeting of the Council was held last night. Upon calling the roll it was found that there was not a quorum present, and according to the rules the Council stood adjourned till the next regular meeting, which will be Monday evening next.—A motion was made to wait half an hour, but as there was not a quorum present the Chair could not entertain it.

THE OPERA LAST NIGHT.—The Opera of the "Magic Flute" attracted a very crowded audience at Young's Hall, last night. It was very well put upon the stage, admirably performed and warmly applauded. Our Musical Society have achieved another triumph. We must reserve a more extended notice till our next.

RESOLVED, That the members of Engine Co. No. 6, refuse the use of their Engine House to any political parties for any purpose unless otherwise ordered by City Council.

THOMAS KERR, Foreman.

A. W. Carroll, Sec'y.

City papers copy.

☞ We call attention to the advertisement of Messrs Shufeldt & Co., of Chicago, in to-day's paper, who manufacture and offer for sale every variety of Alcohol, Pure Spirits, Domestic Liquors, &c., manufactured and distilled by them for the trade only.

☞ Wall, the City Auctioneer, commends his sale of dry goods again this morning.

LAKE PEPIN OPEN! MISSISSIPPI STEAMERS.—The Prairie du Chien Leader of Saturday last, (20th inst.) contains the two following items:

LAKE PEPIN OPEN.—The Postmaster from North Pepin, who arrived in our city yesterday, informs us that before he left there the ice had commenced to break up. He thinks boats would now find no difficulty in going through, and that by Monday next, the lake will be clear.

LATER.—THE FIRST BOAT UP!—The G. H. Wilson passed up the river this morning.

The regular daily line of Packets in connection with the M. & M. R. R. from this place to St. Paul, will commence running in a few days. Mr. J. F. Hill, the old, efficient and gentlemanly agent, retains his post at this point. The boats in the line are the Milwaukee, Captain S. Hewitt; the Itasca, Capt. D. Whitten, and the Ocean Wave, Capt. John Scott, who succeeds Capt. Andrews.

MARINE.—The Detroit Free Press of the 21st inst. says:

"The river for the past week has been entirely free of ice, but yesterday large quantities floated down, which shows that there has been a breaking up in Lake St. Clair. It was very thin and rotten, and was no impediment, whatever, to the ferry boats. The prospect now is, that the river and lake will be perfectly free of ice before the middle of the week."

SENATOR CHAPPELL TO BE INVESTIGATED.—The following is a resolution, adopted by the Senate to investigate certain charges made against Senator Chappell, one of the Democratic leaders in the Legislature:

Resolved, That the select committee appointed to investigate charges against the Hon. William Chappell, Senator from the 14th senatorial district, be, and they are hereby instructed to inquire whether a bill which had been passed by the Senate at the session of the Legislature in 1857, was wrongfully abstracted or purloined, and withheld from the files or possession of the Assembly during the session, and if so, whether said Chappell was in any way or manner connected with such transactions or not. And also, whether said Chappell has been guilty of bribing or offering to bribe any witness or person to prevent him from appearing and testifying before the committee of investigation during the present session of the Legislature; and further whether he, as a member of the Assembly in 1856, did or not, for any purpose connected with his official acts or duty, receive a bribe from any source whatever; and report fully all the facts connected with the subject matter of inquiry under this resolution.

THE RICH HEIRESS AND HER SUITOR.—We believe that there is a probability of the greatest belress of the day, the Hon. Miss Jones Loyd, only daughter of Lord Overstone, becoming the fiancee of a young and noble suitor. The fortunate wooer holds the third rank in the peerage, and has only recently succeeded to the title and estates. His property is an ample one, but somewhat burdened by a jointure settled by his father at his second marriage, which he contracted late in life. Of the enormous wealth of Lord Overstone it is difficult to form an estimate, but it is believed to considerably exceed a million of pounds sterling, and the earldom will therefore probably become one of the richest in the kingdom. The young lady is in her 21st year, and the earl is two years older.—[London Court Journal.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, March 22.

FLOUR—Very dull. A large quantity was offered, but there were no buyers. We quote at 3,95@4,50 for spring extras.

WHEAT—Market flat and no wheat offered. There was considerable enquiry but as far as we could learn no sale was made. On Saturday afternoon a cargo of 19,000 bus sold at 65c free on board between the 8th of April and 1st of May, seller's option, and another cargo of 10,000 bu between the 5th of April and last half of May, at the same figure. 60@63c was offered for spring, new receipts, and 70¾@80 old receipts.

FREIGHTS—Three vessels were taken to Kingston on Saturday, with wheat at 17c, and the same figures were offered this morning. We quote wheat to Buffalo at 12¾ @13.—Journal of last evening.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

NAVIGATION OF LIKE ERIE.—The Dunkirk (N.Y.) Journal, of the 18th inst., says that the wind and rain of Wednesday night cleared the bay of ice in a very abrupt manner. The lake, yesterday morning, presented a very broken appearance, and every indication was favorable to the resumption of lake navigation within a day or two.

Buffalo Creek is clear of ice and there is but little in the Bay. Between Cleveland and Detroit, the Lake is open and steamers commence their trips to-morrow or next day.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 22.

HOUSE.—Stevens of Ga., offered a resolution to discharge Mr. Wolcott and turn him over to the law for trial at the Criminal Court on the indictment which had been formed against him.—Adopted by yeas 126, nays 67.

Mr. Seward of Ga., presented a majority report in the Matteson case, arguing against the jurisdiction.

Mr. Curtiss of Iowa, submitted the minority report for the same case. The subject was postponed till Saturday.

The deficiency appropriation bill was then taken up.

Mr. Garrett of Va., made a speech in favor of Lecompton.

Mr. Bishop of Conn., advocated the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution.

Mr. Poole of N Y., spoke against, and was followed by Mr. Morris of Ill., Mr. Abbott of Maine, and others.

Adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, said he would not discuss the Kansas question on the abstract principles of Slavery but on the ground that the action of the Lecompton Convention, did not express the will of the people. He then followed with considerable closeness the clauses of the President's message, contending that its reasoning in some cases, was fallacious, and others absurd.

He was astonished, he said, that the President should in this Special Message, say that Kansas was in a state of rebellion, and yet propose the admission of this rebellious State into the Union. He (Stuart) would not recapitulate the history of Kansas. That has already been done well.

There are, he said, two factions in the Territory—the abolitionists, who support the Topeka Constitution, and a small equal of extreme Southerners, in favor the extension of Southern institutions, and the revival of the slave trade, who favor the Lecompton Constitution; but the great bulk of the people are against both of these constitutions, when the President make a remarkable statement as to the rebellion it was in, at the time of the October election.

It was absurd to say that a people having the Government in their own hands, and exercising it under the form of law and under a government appointed by the President, was in a state of rebellion. The people peacefully prepared an issue by which they expressed their objections to the proceedings of the Convention, and they do so by 10,000 majority. The President having established, as he thinks, this constitution on the principles of right, proceeds to defend it on the principle of expediency for himself. His view of a territorial constitution is that it is an incipient movement for the formation of a State. If presented to Congress and refused acceptance it is a constitution no longer.

He next commented upon the fraudulent surroundings of the Lecompton Constitution, and also condemned, in the severest terms, the conduct of Calhoun touching the returns in the last election.

Citing the President's words that if the Kansas act is fairly executed, it will allay all excitement, he said he agreed with him on that point. That is a principle upon which all can stand—not because it is the Kansas act, but because it comes out a principle as ancient as the right of free government, namely: that the people may say under what government they will live; that is the panacea not only for Kansas, but for the whole world, continued the Senator from Virginia, Mr. Hunter, the other day, and by way of contrast alluded to the eagles of Europe gathering to the spoils of empire, while we are wrangling over the frauds at Delaware Crossing.

That Senator here unwittingly described the difference between the nations of Europe and this Republic. Their empire is extended and the people are governed by the strong arm of power through the purity of the ballot box.—Had the Senator forgotten that impurity flowing through all the arteries and veins of this Republic may reduce it to a mass, rotten mass.—Statesmen must not overlook such agencies.

Mr. Stuart pleaded earnestly a conciliatory course in the question. Let the Kansas act, he said, be fairly executed, let the people make the constitution in their own way and there will be peace in Kansas and in the country. Let the people exercise the privilege, which in common with all within our borders, belongs to them, and in a few days we can herald throughout the Union that Kansas has had her rights secured here in the legislative halls of the nation, that Lecompton is dead and the people free.

He concluded by replying at great length to the several legal points laid down in Mr. Pugh's recent speech, and announcing that he should vote against the gentleman's amendment. The galleries were crammed, and in the heat and confusion, a lady fainted.

Mr. Douglas just entered, and is holding a confab with Mr. Green. The former looks ill.—Everybody is trying to get a look at him. The Turkish visitors have also just entered.

Mr. Bayard, of Del., proceeded to demonstrate by reference to numerous legal authorities, that the Lecompton Constitution was framed with all due formality. The majority in Kansas were bound by the vote of the minority, inasmuch as they are held to assent to what they could have avoided if they chose. He had heard that there were no frauds in the vote as to whether or not Kansas was to be admitted. The alleged frauds were in the subsequent Legislative election.

He also discussed at length the question of the ultimate power of the revolution, and showed that the people can exercise the right to change their government peacefully and legislatively without necessarily resorting to their revolutionary right. Mr. B. concluded with an elaborate defence of slavery.

Mr. Broderick of Cal., reviewed at length the circumstances attending the repeal of the Missouri Compromise and the consequence following that repeal. The South, he said, by that fatal measure destroyed its own interest, and was now seeking a remedy by the repeal of the Union.

Congress, he continued, has nothing to do with that. Alluding to the question of submission, he thought it would have been better to have submitted the question to the people, but that a submission was not necessary to its validity. He lived in a State whose Constitution was never submitted, yet he never doubted its valid ity. The only question dividing the people in Kansas, that of Slavery was submitted fairly to their votes proceeding then to the question of slavery.

Mr. Bayard argued at length the abstract right of property existing in slaves and slave issue, and maintained that the Lecompton Constitution does not establish but merely tolerates slavery, and that the legislature may at any time emancipate the slaves in Kansas with the owners permission, or paying about $15,000 dollars can set the whole population free with the owners consent. He then referred briefly to the Topeka Constitution, contending that its authors were rebels, differing from the Mormons in only that they shrink from managing their rebellious attitude by force of arms.

But would a dissolution, he asked, prevent the immigration of free labor into the South? Not wherever there is land for homes there free labor will find its way. Had the Missouri line been permitted to stand, free labor would not have attempted to cross it. A Senator had said, cotton is King. He had omitted to tell about the fluctuations of the staple. Gold is King, said Mr. Broderick, not cotton. He represented a State where labor is honorable—where the highest persons are not ashamed to own they have not delved in the earth.

He was glad the Senator from S. C. had spoken about white slaves, and he hoped that his language would stir up the 200,000 white men in that State who are now kept in subjection by 30,000 wealthy slaveholders. The Senator from S. C., had called the Northern laborers slaves.—He did not think him personal, otherwise he should have noticed the remark at the time of its utterance.

He, B., was the youngest Senator, excepting one, on the floor. He had served an apprenticeship of five years at a laborious occupation.—He was the son of a laborer, and had only to look around that building to see specimens of his father's handiwork. He, B., was tired of the struggles and jealousies of his class and went to California.

His election in that State to this Senate was not the result of accident, for he had to fight not only against the opposition of his own party, but against presses bought up with government money. Leaving this personal explanation, he turned to his course in the Senate.

He hoped the historian of these times would attribute the attempt to force this measure to the pestulancy falling intellect and trembling decrepitude of an old man tottering on the verge of the grave. The Senate took a recess until 7 o'clock.

Republican Committee Minority Report.

WASHINGTON, March 21.

The Republican minority of the Select Committee have published their report. They set forth the frauds at the election and the irregularity and illegality of the Lecompton Constitution. They challenge investigation into the statements put forth, the whole purpose of the Committee having been thwarted in the refusal of the majority to enter upon a full and fair investigation. We submit that the facts already proven are enough to establish the positions we maintained, to the fullest extent:

First—That an investigation ought to have been had by a Committee with the power and disposition to send for persons and papers.

Second—That the President has been misinformed and badly advised in relation to the condition of parties in Kansas.

Third—That in proportion as Congress has relaxed its power over Territories, that of the Executive has increased, and that all the difficulties cannot be improved until Congress shall receive entire constitutional authority.

Fourth—That the maligned Topeka Constitution was the act of the people of Kansas, and act cords now more with the will of the people than any other, and is more entitled to the respect of Kansas.

Fifth—That the plighted faith of the nation was pledged to the people of Kansas; that any constitution which might be submitted by the framers to them, by their approval or disapproval, and this has not been done.

Sixth—That there is no unimpeachable evidence to show that the constitution presented by John Calhoun is the identical one agreed upon by the Lecompton Convention, before it adjourned.

Seventh—That the Lecompton Constitution is illegal in conception, and therefore void; and if this were not so, then by the action of the Territorial Legislature, the people have been enabled fairly and legally to vote for or against, and have emphatically rejected it.

The House refused (only 22 votes being received) in the afternoon to unconditionally discharge John W. Wolcott from custody.

The "News" Against Lecompton!

Our neighbor of the News, not having the fear of President BUCHANAN before its eyes, or temporarily oblivious of the fact that King JAMES the First tolerates no "freedom of opinion" among his faithful subjects and servants, startled its readers on Sunday with the following radical proposition:

The people demand, and will have, their right to express their choice in their organic law.—And they never will yield that right, at the solicitation of any clique.

This is a most emphatic protest against the Lecompton Villainy, which President BUCHANAN, the National Administration and the National Democratic Party are just now trying to force through Congress and upon Kansas. The People of Kansas do indeed, as the News avers, "demand the right" to make their own "organic law;" and truly too, does the News predict that "they will never yield that right," at the dictation of any "clique," of Federal Office-holders, reckless demagogues, or aspiring politicians. In short, the People of Kansas intend to frame a constitution to their own liking, and will by no manner of means consent to swallow that which President BUCHANAN and his obsequious followers in Congress are preparing for them. Assuredly the News is sound on that goose.

But how came it that the News has so suddenly changed front? But yesterday it was clamorous for Lecompton. To-day it sides with the People of Kansas and against the Mammoth Iniquity. Has some new "official" light been vouchsafed to our sorely puzzled contemporary? Has some private signal to "go about" been communicated to it from Washington? Has an unpleasant rumor reached its ears that there was to be a new incumbent shortly of the Milwaukee Post Office? Or, if none of these, what potent and secret cause has produced this sudden and, no doubt, sincere change of opinion?

The proposition so clearly and strongly stated by the News is the very head and front, the bone and basis, of Anti-Lecompton Democracy. We may therefore felicitate that respectable division of the Democratic Party upon the fact, that the News, proof alike against Executive blandishments and Executive threats, and above the temptation of office, has struck the black flag of "Lecompton" and run up the colors of "Popular Sovereignty." We dismiss, of course, as unworthy of notice, the ill-natured suggestion of certain parties, that the doctrine now promulgated by the News is only calculated for the meridian of Milwaukee, and put forth for a particular purpose; and that as soon as the Charter Amendments are disposed of, the News will relapse into its former infidelity, on the subject of Popular Rights, and believe only in BUCHANAN and LECOMPTON. Still less do we credit the idle rumor that no copy of the issues of the News, containing those heretical doctrines about the right of the People to frame their own organic law, are allowed to reach Washington.—If the story were true, it would only prove that the P. M. Editor of the News, not wishing to bore Mr. BUCHANAN with our local matters, keeps back the numbers of his paper in which these topics are discussed, and only provides his Democratic Majesty with those, in which his praises are sung, the Administration magnified, Lecompton defended, and "Popular Sovereignty" denounced.

Used to Being Skinned.

Our readers have doubtless heard the story of the fish-woman who was skinning live eels in the market, and replied to a bystander, who thought it cruel work, that the eels were "used to it." Apparently, Ald. HADLEY and his associates hold the same opinion about the robbed, oppressed and long-enduring Tax-payers of this city. They, the skinners, think that the Tax-payers, having been regularly and unmercifully fleeced for so long a period, have got "used to it," and no longer mind the process; and that the convulsive efforts which they make, every now and then, to escape from their tormentors, are playful merely and mean nothing serious.—And therefore, now that the Tax-Payers, with almost one accord, demand such amendments to the City Charter, as will lop off superfluous offices, cut down expenditures, limit the City debt, reduce taxation, protect the rights of persons and property, throw guards around the Treasury, provide for fair and equal Assessments, curtail the overgrown power of Aldermen and others, put a stop to the unlimited issue of City bonds, and effect, in short, a radical RETRENCHMENT and REFORM in City affairs, HADLEY & Co. treat the whole matter as an excellent jest; pleasantly suggest that the People wait a year, or so, for "Reform," and promise, meantime, that they will look into the matter and make it all right! In other words, they propose to continue business, as skinners, for another season, and do not at all doubt that the Tax-payers, being "used to it," will readily consent to this, and possibly, before the season is over, give up, in despair, all efforts to amend the Charter, and surrender at discretion to the army of TAX-EATERS. Whether HADLEY & Co. are to be disappointed or not in these flattering expectations, the next few days must determine. If our TAX-PAYERS are not yet tired of the rule of the TAX-EATERS, they can easily ensure its perpetuation, by folding their arms and suffering the Charter Election to go by default. If, on the other hand, they are anxious and impatient for a change, let them go to work, in earnest, to bring it about.

THE STATE FAIR—WHERE SHALL IT BE HELD?—Many of our contemporaries throughout the State, are expressing there opinions in favor of having the next State fair held at Milwaukee.—It strikes us that their can be no question as to the propriety of locating the State Fair at this city, in preference to any other place that has been suggested. At present, there is no other city in the State that can afford anything like requisite accommodations for the number who will attend the fair. The following remarks from the Elkhorn Independent will commend themselves to the good sense of all who attended the last Fair. The experience of our Elkhorn friends, is, no doubt, that of hundreds of others:

"The place of holding the State Fair is being agitated. The Janesville Gazette says it learns from the officers that the location is limited to three places, Milwaukee, Madison and Janesville, and that which ever place offers the largest bonus and the best advantage to the society gets it.

We think the society will not act upon this principle. Justice to the people of the State would dictate the Society. It strikes us that Milwaukee is the only place where it ought to be held. Janesville and Madison are both too small. Half the people that attend will have to sleep under wagons and in barns, and half starve. We attended last year."

VILLAGES FOR SALE.—The Sheriff of Newark, New Jersey advertises for sale the entire village of Malaga, in that State. It consists of more than 5,000 acres of land, with glass works, mills, and forty dwelling houses. The village exhibits a scene of desolation and abandonment, so complete and thorough as to be rarely exceeded.—We also learn by an advertisment in the Lawrenceburg, Indiana Register, that the greater portion of the city of Aurora, Indiana, is to be sold at public sale by the United States Marshal, for the benefit of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad.

"To The Public,"

Especially the Stockholders of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Co.

In order that you may not be deceived in regard to a certain passage, in the Sixth Annual Report of the La Crosse & Mil. R. R. Co. on the last page, of said report, in which my name appears very conspicuously. They say I recovered a judgment against said company for over $100,000. So far, true.

They then say, "This Board does not admit of this, as being a final adjustment of the matter, in controversy. A suit is pending against him for damages, for a violation of his contract, and we hope to reduce the amount of his claim against us." Very queer, is it not?

And a statement the present Board know there is no truth or foundation in, and made only for show, and to blind outsiders. I took a contract from the La Crosse Co. in the spring of 1765, to build about fifty miles of road. When I had built about twenty-five miles of said road, one Mr. A. L. Kane, D. C. Jackson and T. J. Chittenden, with the aid and knowledge, of a part, (if not all) of the Board of Directors, concocted a plan to drive me forcibly from said road, in which they succeeded. The said Kane, Jackson and Chittenden, finishing the work on said road to Horicon, being the terminus of my contract.

Now, "how preposterous the idea," to kick a man out of your house, and then say to the public that you are going to get damages of him for going out. The present La Crosse Board, "who are in fact the old Board," know

There is not a shadow of a claim for damages against me. Proof for which, I will refer them to the decision of Judge Miller, in the case of N. Cleveland against the La Crosse R. R. Co., and if said Company have any just claim against me for damages, why this delay? I am prepared to prove by my counsel in this city, that I, as well as they, have not only asked, but tried in every way, to get said trial on; but the said Company manage, in some way, to put it off, from term to term. And for what reason? Because they well know they have no claim; but wish to use this as a handle to my judgement against the Company, and I will here state, not only to the public, but to this Company, that I am not only ready and willing, but anxious to have this suit come off, about which they are making so much talk. The truth in this whole affair is easily told. The community (some of them, at least) wonder how a Director in a R. R. can make any money. Let such come to me, and in a few minutes conversation I will clear their minds in regard to any doubts they may have on that subject. One item, for instance, I am ready to testify under oath, that one of the Directors of the La Crosse Board said to me:—"If you will turn in with me, you can, and shall have your pay. I don't care how much you get out of the Company." As much as to say: "If I can have one-half, I can get you the other half." I declined the proposition. I was then told that if I did not accept this, that I should never get a cent. Thus, they are now pretending to the public that my claim is an unjust one. Time alone will tell.

The Present City Officers.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Once more I ask your indulgence to say a few words in reply to "Reform," in Saturday's Times.

I am charged with not being well pleased, because "Reform" does not chime in with me. If he has drawn such an inference from my former articles, I certainly will not give him an opportunity to do so from this, and will endeavor to disabuse his mind by saying that I am not only pleased, but highly elated to find him awake to to the importance of a reformation in the management of our city affairs. And I am also pleased with this declaration and frank acknowledgement that the Comptroller is no favorite of his, and that what he said in relation to that gentleman, was only from hearsay, not from any knowledge of his own.

"Reform," like most new converts to a righteous cause, suffers his zeal to carry him far beyond my most sanguine expectations. Listen for a moment when he exclaims—"I do not ask, "nor do I desire that any of the City Officers be "retained." What new light has dawned upon him? What has caused the scales that before obscured his vision to fall from his eyes? Let me answer: I believe he sought after the truth, found it, and became convinced of his error, but I fear I am somewhat too fast, a little too sanguine over this unlooked for conversion.

Does not the closing part of his communication look as if he still was skeptical? I fear so, but sincerely trust no paid advertisement in the New York Herald will cause him for a moment to swerve, or back-slide. For fear he may again fall into error, let me say one word by way of admonition. Close your ears to what you may hear from interested parties, and let the Comptroller put that thorough business knowledge, which he is said to possess, to the test, in bringing order out of confusion. An opportunity can be easily had, and I have not the faintest doubt, would be highly appreciated by the officers of a Banking institution in this city, who, I am informed, have a set of books in their possession in rather a "confused" state, a monument to the "superior skill and business talent" of a certain book-keeper at one time in their employ.

I will promise to aid you, and assist you in getting permission from the officers of the Bank that the feat may be tested: it is important it should be attended to immediately, that the people may have an opportunity to vote understandingly, and you remain steadfast.

VICTOR.

MILWAUKEE, March 23, 1858.

GOOD HOPE OF DEFEATING THE LECOMPTON SWINDLE.—The N. Y. Tribune of Thursday last, upon the strength of private advices from Washington, speaks thus encouragingly of the prospect of defeating the Lecompton Villainy:

Our readers will hear gladly that we have private and confidential advices from Washington which fully justify our conviction that the Lecompton fraud cannot pass the House of Representatives. It will, of course, be driven through the Senate on Monday or Tuesday next, but by a smaller majority than its advocates have confidently anticipated. Thence it goes to the House, where a very different fortune awaits it. Though its backers have never triumphed on the preliminary questions which have divided the House, they yet have maintained an air of confidence throughout—a confidence which no facts known to the public have warranted. We rejoice, however, in our ability to assure the adversaries of government by ballot-stuffing and Directory-copying that this iniquitous device will either be laid on the table of the House or so amended that its own fathers will disown it.

The Dunean Monument.

BUFFALO, WIS., March, 1858.

MESSRS EDITORS:

Permit me in behalf of the members of Green Wood Cemetery Association, to inquire through the columns of your paper, whether the Duncan Monument Association of your city, hath yet an existence, and to suggest unto the Directors and Treasurer thereof, the propriety of taking those funds, or sufficient thereof to rear, at least, a suitable slab, with appropriate inscription thereon, over the final resting place of that martyr for truth, whose remains were disinterred on the 12th of February, and deposited in the grounds of said Cemetery. Any information in relation to the same, either through the columns of the Sentinel or by letter, addressed to Kingston, Marquette Co., Wis., will be thankfully received. By order of the Society.

The State Printing.

So much has been said, in the Legislature and by the news papers, touching the amount and cost of the State Printing, during the last year, that it is no more than justice to the parties interested, to state the facts as they appear in the report of the Select Committee having charge of the subject. The Committee, after patient investigation, report that the whole amount, properly chargeable to the General Fund in 1857 was $39,977, of which $22,986 was for printing in foreign languages. We copy the concluding portion of the Report:

Your Committee, believing that some matters connected with the public printing, and not particularly referred to in the Governor's Message, are of sufficient importance to demand that further information should be given thereon, have directed me further to report, that they do find the whole expense for printing and advertising, payable out of the General Fund for the year 1857, as follows:

Whole amount appropriated by the legislature of 1857,	$19,820 23
From which deduct amount of appropriations, 84, 86, 87 and 42, for stationery and printing of previous years,	12,041 98
Leaving amount appropriated by the legislature of 1857 for printing of that year,	7,848 80
Amount audited by the Secretary of State for printing,	4,140 60
Amount claimed, but unsettled,	16,684 74
Total paid and claimed	$26,126 64
From the above, in the opinion of the committee, should be deducted as follows:
Amount in unsettled account for printing daily slips, &c., since January 1858,	$1,126 00
Amount for reports furnished this legislature (estimated),	2,000 00
Amount estimated by the committee to deduct from unsettled account as overcharged,	22,981 08
Total deduction,	$26,149 06
Real cost of printing of 1857, payable out of the General Fund,	$39,977 58

This amount may, however, be increased some thousands by the future action of the legislature on these deductions. Of this amount, the sum of twenty-two thousand nine hundred and eighty-five dollars ($22,985), or almost one half of the entire sum, was for printing in foreign languages.

We are aware that the impression exists that the printing has cost a much larger sum than is indicated above. This opinion has doubtless been formed, to some extent, by an examination of the amount paid during the year from the Treasury for printing as reported by the Secretary of State. A further examination of this matter will show, that during the year 1857, a printing debt, amounting to more than thirty thousand dollars, was paid off, which debt was for printing done previous to that year.

The Militia Bill.

The following is the report of the Committee on the Militia, in the Assembly, in favor of the Senate Bill, providing for the organization, enrollment and discipline of the Militia of this State. We are glad to hear that the bill will, without much doubt, become a law:

Your Committee to whom was referred No. 155 S, "a bill for an act providing for the organization, enrolling and discipline of the militia of the State of Wisconsin,"

Have had the same under consideration and beg leave to submit their report as follows:

The high and imperative duty imposed upon the legislature by the constitution of providing for the organization and enrollment of the militia of the State, has been too long neglected, and should receive at the present time that attention which its importance demands.

The necessity for a resort to arms at any time, and under any circumstances, among civilized nations, is universally conceded to be a public calamity. Yet the fundamental principles upon which the social fabric of the world, and the political relations of civilized governments are based, are such that this necessity has often arisen and may again arise; and all history teaches us that great and peaceably disposed nations have at times, by the force of circumstances been involved in justifiable warfare, and that the surest and most triumphant success has always attended those whose preparation has been the most systematic and perfect.

In our country the militia has always been the only safe reliance in time of danger—the safeguard of the American escutcheon. And all past experience has abundantly vindicated the efficiency of this potent arm of the government. It is true that the tendencies of the American people are undoubtedly in the direction of peaceable employments and amicable relations with all the world, and opposed to excessive or unnecessary military display. Nevertheless, it cannot be denied that Americans possess no small proportion of the martial spirit, and that upon all proper occasions they have never failed to demonstrate it to a hostile foe.

The Emperor Napoleon let, the most renowned chieftain the world ever saw, estimated that every civilized nation could, in an emergency, furnish 250,000 able bodied fighting men from each million of inhabitants. Upon this ratio, the State of Wisconsin could to-day, if necessary, muster at least 150,000 soldiers.

The urgent necessity for a systematic, permanent organization and enrollment of this large force, must, in the opinion of your committee address itself to the sound judgment of every loyal citizen. To the end that such an organization may be effected, your committee report the accompanying bill without amendment, and recommend its passage without delay.

The minority made a report.

HARLOW PEASE,
Ch'n Com. on Mil.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Madison, March 18.

To the Honorable, the Assembly:

There has been presented to me, for my approval, a bill entitled "an act to authorize Thomas Douglas to construct a bridge across Black river, in the county of Jackson."

This act, although it does not in express terms create a corporation, confers upon Thomas Douglas, his associates and assigns, authority to construct and maintain a toll bridge across Black river, in the county of Jackson, between certain points on that river, named in the bill. It is liable to the same objections, under the constitution, with other acts of a similar character, conferring special corporate powers for private purposes upon individuals. Provision has already been made, by general law, for objects of this kind, under an act entitled "an act granting further powers to the board of supervisors of the several counties, approved April 17, 1852.—Among the enumerated powers by this last mentioned act conferred upon county boards, are the following: "To grant charters to any persons to build and maintain toll and free bridges in their respective counties, and to regulate the tolls thereof." The act presented to me, is called a charter in its own terms. The reasons above stated, constitute my objections to this bill, and I must return it to the Assembly, where it originated, without my approval.

ALEX. W. RANDALL.

Veto sustained, 57 to 14.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Madison, March 17.

To the Honorable, the Assembly:

A bill entitled "an act to incorporate the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph's, of the city of Milwaukee,"

Has been presented for my approval. The act creates a corporation "without banking powers or privileges," which the constitution says shall not be done by special act, "except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws." In this act there is no expression of the judgment of the legislature, that the objects of the bill cannot be attained under general laws. A very slight alteration in the general law, on the subject of Religious Societies, entitled "Of Religious Societies," chapter 47, of the Revised Statute, will enable the corporators named in this act to organize under it, and thereby attain all the objects sought to be attained by this bill. More regard ought to be paid to general legislation, in providing means for organizing charitable associations of the character contemplated by this act. The design commends itself to every friend of humanity, and the self sacrificing devotion of those who engage in the exercise of those charities as are contemplated, either under a law, or by voluntary association, without any law directly on the subject, is worthy of both public and private countenance and support.—Some constitutional provision ought to be made in aid of such associations. My objections to this bill above stated, like the objections which I have heretofore given to special acts of incorporation, make it necessary for me to return the bill to the Assembly, where it originated, without my approval.

ALEX. W. RANDALL,

Veto sustained, 58 to 16.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, Madison, March 18.

To the Honorable, the Assembly:

A bill entitled "an act to incorporate the Half Moon Lake canal company;"

Has been presented to me for my approval.—The following are my objections to the bill:

It creates a corporation, without banking powers or privileges, which the constitution of the State says shall not be done by special act, "except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws." There is nothing in this act, expressing the judgment of the legislature that the objects of this bill, or of such a corporation, cannot be attained under general laws. Aside from the doubtful expediency of some of the provisions of this bill, the general objections to such corporations, created by special act, make it my duty to return it to the Assembly, where it originated, without my approval.

ALEX. W. RANDALL

Veto sustained, 62 to 15.

From Washington.

Special Dispatches to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, March 17.

Mr. Crittenden made a great speech to-day—a noble speech—clear, logical eloquent, denunciatory of Lecompton as a fraud, an imposition, and an outrage; fraudulent in its conception, growth and fruition; a disgrace, an infamy, bolstered up by flimsy pretexts and technical quibbles which no man believed, which every man saw through. The Lecompton Constitution was rejected, abhorred by a vast majority of the people of Kansas. The question before Congress was, not whether Kansas should be admitted, but whether a sham Constitution should be force upon an unwilling people.

After stating the facts and arraying the evidence with masterly skill, to prove a demonstration that Lecompton was a base cheat, the gallant old statesman raised his tall form to its full height, shook his white locks, and energetically declared that as a Southern man he would resist to the last this infamous aggression on the North, this tyranical attempt to trample on the rights of the people of Kansas. No good to the country, no good to the South, could come from forcing the Lecompton instrument on Kansas, and he implored the Senate, he implored the friends of the Union not to bring this disgrace, this evil on the country. At the end he gave notice of an amendment referring the whole subject to the people of Kansas for settlement.

Mr. Crittenden spoke two hours. The Senate was very full, the chamber crowded with Representatives, and the galleries overflowing. He was heard with the most perfect attention from the beginning to the close, and evidently made a deep impression. A Democratic Senator said this afternoon that it was impossible to pass Lecompton after such a speech. The Lecomptonites feel the blow keenly, coming from such a quarter, especially as Mr. Crittenden took such high ground, speaking above all reference to party or to partisan or sectional considerations, but simply as an honest, patriotic statesman—anxious to save his country from the disgrace and danger of a great crime.

Our Court of Last Resort.

Virginia protested, day before yesterday, through her Senator, Mr. Mason, against any change in the Supreme Court of the U. S. The reason is obvious.

When John Jay occupied the central seat on the Bench of the Supreme Court, it consisted of three northern and three Southern men, whose judicial ermine was without spot or taint. But the proclamation that announced his retirement, sounded the knell of Liberty and Justice in that vaulted chamber. From that day it has been gradually and steadily in process of conversion into a citadel of Slavery. Every new Judgeship that has been added to it, has been filled with a slaveholder. The majority of the Judges have been slaveholders for fifty years. The Chief Justices have been slaveholders all this century. To retain the control in Southern hands the most unjust apportionments and inequitable decisions have been made. Look, for instance, at the nine black-robed incumbents, five of them Southern men, and three of the other four, "Northern men with Southern principles:" The Free States, with a population of fourteen millions, have but four Justices, while the Slave States, with a population of seven millions, have five!

Circuits are manufactured out of sparsely settled regions at the South, without business enough to keep a Judge employed a quarter of his time, in order to counterbalance the great, busy and trebly populous Circuits of the North. Judge McLean's Circuit alone, (Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan) comprise more white population than all four of the Southern Circuits of Judges Taney, Wayne, Daniel and Campbell put together! Judge Nelson's Circuit (New York, Vermont and Connecticut) has more business transacted in it in a year, than any two Southern Circuits have in half a dozen years. Even this unfair division was not enough to satisfy the South. To please the Slaveholders, three Free States, Iowa, Wisconsin and California, are allowed no representation on the Bench at all, and are not included in any Circuit. No wonder a Court thus made up should draggle its judicial robes in the dust, at the bidding of Slave Traders and Slave Hunters. It is high time it was "reformed altogether." Its one-sided apportionment and one-sided decisions are unworthy of a Republican country or a civilized age.—Albany Evening Journal.

NEW AND ACCURATE TOPOGRAPHICAL MAP

—OF—

MILWAUKEE COUNTY, WIS.,

—FROM—

Instrumental Surveys throughout the County.

THE SUBSCRIBER is preparing to publish a new and complete

Map of the County of Milwaukee,

Made from actual measurement with instruments, by several Surveyors, under the direction of H. F. Walling, Civil and Topographical Engineer. The map is to be drawn on a very large scale, covering nearly

TWENTY-FIVE SQUARE FEET

Of surface. All the Public Roads and Railroads are to be accurately laid down, with the location of Farms, Public Buildings, Places of Worship, School Houses, Stores, Dwellings, Hotels, Mills, Shops, &c., and the names of property owners inserted in their proper places, with the number of acres in each farm, &c. A large

Extra Map of the City of Milwaukee,

Showing all the Lots as originally laid out, with the Public Buildings, Stores, Churches, School Houses, Ward Lines, &c., &c., accurately laid down, will be added to the map. Also, extra plans of all the principal villages in the County, showing the Lots and Buildings on an enlarged scale, and giving every property owner's name attached to his property. Vignettes of some of the PUBLIC BUILDINGS, &C.

Will be given on the margin.

The whole will form a Map of NEARLY FIVE FEET SQUARE, and will be engraved in superior Style by some of the best artists in New York. It will be handsomely colored, mounted on rollers, and varnished and delivered to those who may have Ordered copies, as early as may be practicable.

☞ Price $5 per copy, without variation.

No. 20 Fulton street, New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following distinguished gentlemen have recommended various Maps prepared by H. F. Walling, whose reputation as a Civil and Topographical Engineer is well established in the Eastern States:

Hon. N. P. Banks, Governor of Massachusetts.
" Emory Washburne, Ex-Gov. "
" Geo. N. Briggs, " "
" Edward Everett, " "
" Geo. S. Boutwell, " "
" Chas Sumner, U. S. Senator, "
" Rufus Choate, " "

" Elisha Dyer, Governor of Rhode Island.
" W. W. Hoppin, Ex-Gov. "
" H. E. Anthony, " "
" Philip Allen, U. S. Senator, "
" Jas F. Simmons, " "

We, the undersigned, having examined the Map of Milwaukee County, with the Map of the City, &c., to be added to it, take pleasure in recommending it to the favorable notice of the citizens, as eminently worthy of patronage. It seems to have been prepared with great care, and is very full and complete. The price is very low, and no person owning property in the County should fail to procure one.

CONTENTMENT.

BY CHARLES D. DAYDEN.

The brightest gem the world can boast,
The poorest man may wear;
And keep it as an amulet
To exercise his care.

It never mocks at poverty,
Nor makes the wearer proud;
But sheds soft lustre on his path,
Like sunlight through the cloud.

'Tis one the noble in his hall,
The cottager on his throne,
Wielding pomp and pageantry,
Can never call their own.

It rarely graces stately dames,
Although it adds to beauty,
It sheds an known delight upon
The least attractive duty.

It is not to be bought with gold,
Nor high estate can gain it;
And yet the humblest in the land
Can easily obtain it.

It is not found in Orient streams,
In deep mines is not hidden,
But answers to a fairy call,
And ever comes when bidden.

Twill make a palace of a hut,
A paradise of earth;
And though it can be cheaply bought,
It is of priceless worth.

And he's wise who ever wears
The jewel in his breast.
His heart will own tranquility,
However much oppressed.

It keeps the brow from furrows free,
The spirit ever young,
And teaches more and better truth
Than's often said or sung.

It checks impatient wanderings,
Takes pain from banishment;
And, after all, this precious thing
Is nothing but content.

A Startling Confession.

Mordecai Paine, a saddler doing business in South Ninth street, Philadelphia was called home from his work shop on Saturday morning, by a messenger who brought the melancholy intelligence that his wife had taken arsenic for the purpose of committing suicide, and was then at the point of death. He hastened to her bed side, and found her in more agony of mind than of body. She declared that there was something on her mind which she wished to confess to him before her departure, with the hope of obtaining his forgiveness. Mr. Paine, with great emotion, desired her to go on with the disclosure, adding that she might assure herself of his forgiveness before she had made known her offence.

'Ah, Mordecai,' said she, 'you remember our large white pitcher that was broken some time ago; I pretended to you that the cat broke it, but that was false, for I myself did it.'

'Oh, my dear, said Mr. Paine, "don't concern yourself about such a trifle. I had forgotten the pitcher, and it matters not how it was broken."

"There is another matter," said Mrs. P., after some hesitation, "The six silver spoons which I made you believe were stolen by the Yankee clockmender; I pawned them to raise money to pay the milliner for doing up my pink satin bonnet."

"Never mind it, my love," said Mr. Paine encouragingly. I hope heaven will forgive you as freely as I do."

After a short pause, Mrs. P. began again:
"Your best razor, which you missed last summer, and made so much to do about, I swapped away to a pedler for a tortoise shell comb."

"Well, well," said Mr. P., reconciling himself, 'that is all done now, and can't be amended, think no more of it.'

'I could not leave the world with another thing on my conscience, 'replied the fair penitent.

'Go on, go on,' cried Mr. P. 'I told you that I could forgive anything at such a time as this, Mrs. P. resumed:—

'You remember our boarder, Simeon Darke, who ran up a bill for six weeks, and went off in a hurry without paying a cent. He and I had agreed to elope together; but he changed his mind at the last moment, and ran away without me.'

'Fire and fury!' cried Mordecai in great excitement. 'But as you are dying, I wont reproach you. I'll leave you now to settle the affair with your own conscience,'

'Stay and hear one thing more,' cried the repentant Barbara. 'The dose I took this morning was intended for you. I put it into your cup of coffee, but in my hurry to get the thing done, I gave you the wrong cup and took the right one myself.'

'The devil fly away with you, you jade!' roared Mordecai as he flung himself out of the room,—in the entry he met the apothecary who had sold Mrs. P. the fatal powder. This medical man had heard of the commotion in P.'s house, and suspecting the cause of it, he came to administer hope and comfort to the afflicted.

'Don't be alarmed, Mr. 'Paine,' said the, the drug I sold to your wife was nothing but magnesia. I judged that she wished to destroy herself, and tricked her in this way to save her life.'

'You dwindling rascal,' shouted Paine, 'how dare you cheat a customer in that shameful manner, and obtain her money on false pretences?—Begone!'

And with this exclaimation he violently ejected the astonished apothecary from his front door. The man of physic, suspecting, of course, that poor Mordecai was deranged, sent two officers to provide for his safe keeping. His relation of the preceding dialogue, however, soon obtained his discharge.

Revival of the Slave Trade.

(Cor. of the Phila. Press.):

NEW ORLEANS, March 7.

I have not the slightest doubt that the project for the re-opening the slave trade is a serious and wide spread movement. I have good reason for supposing that millions are interested in it. Our newspapers are all out against it, except J. D. Jenkins, in the Delta, and he advocated it a year ago, as the only means of saving the South from Northern progress. The Legislature has actually adopted the bill, and you need not be surprised if it becomes a law. I hear that Gov. Wickliffe is not opposed to it.

I fear that more than one Southern member at Washington favors this inhuman and horrible enterprise.

ONE DOLLAR
WILL BUY
ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, during first on the other to the second matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the stomach at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums.

Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one hundred of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success in relieving in the prompt and efficient manner as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely or failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.

INDIGESTION being caused by a decay of Liver incurred when the Liver is exalted to action.

JAUNDICE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, any one troubled with Jaundice can try the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.

COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.

SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects all acidity and a portion of the stomach.

For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak of it in the highest terms.

DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us as cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The terrible opinion of so many of our Physicians in favor induced us to try it, and now can say without a doubt that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this the greatest remedy in the world.—Gate of Hope.

We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER and AGUE, BILIOUS FEVER, and all FEVERS OF A TYPHOID TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Where has not been introduced in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as Dr. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we utter this; for it acts as a Cathartic quickly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly, that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. Feverish symptoms disappear under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

Type, Stereotype & Electrotype Foundry,
AND
PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE,
Corner of West Water & Spring Streets,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Having completed new arrangements for the above business in this city, we would invite the co-operation of the printers of this and surrounding States in its behalf. Our facilities are equal to any Foundry in the country for manufacturing Type and Printer's Material; and for beauty of finish and hardness of metal, cannot be surpassed in this or any other country. The faces of our Type are all modern and most approved styles, and we shall endeavor to promptly supply our Patrons in future, by getting up new styles of Type, Borders, Cuts, Ornaments, &c. We are in daily receipt of all new faces as they are made in the East, and in advance of any other Establishment in the trade.

Being agents for some of the best Type Foundries and Press and Ink Manufactories at the East, we shall keep constantly on hand a full assortment of every variety of material, viz:

Presses, Wood Type, etc., furnished at Manufacturers prices.

Orders for Stereotyping, Engraving, etc., promptly attended to.

We shall issue in the course of the next three months a new Specimen Book which will be furnished on application.

☞ Printers of Newspapers who choose to publish this advertisement including this note, 1 Month, will be allowed their bills at the time of purchasing, three times the amount of one month's subscription.

REFERENCES AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 29, 1858.

We, the undersigned, have known Dr. S. M. LANDIS for a number of years, and having personally undergone his admirable treatment, do most cheerfully recommend him to the public confidence as a scientific, successful and able practitioner of the "Healing Art," as the same is taught by progressive Water Cure and Hygienic advocates.

We equally deem him worthy of public appreciation wherever he goes, and we much regret his loss as a Physician, Teacher and Public Lecturer.

Should any friends of the undersigned meet with this they will be kind enough to regard this as a special recommendation. Dr. LANDIS,
